Mrs. Thomas J. Walsh Hostess at a Large Reception Today.

Senator and Mrs. Overman to Give a Reception This Afternoon—Miss Tillman's Debut Tea—Notes.

Mrs. Thomas J. Walsh, wife of Senator Walsh of Montana, entertained at a beautiful luncheon at the Highlands today.

The table had a centerpiece of red roses and ferns and the guests included Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, Mrs. Robert M. La Follette, Mrs. Thomas P. Gore, Mrs. Henry F. Lippett, Mrs. James E. Martine, Mrs. George P. McLean, Mrs. Henry L. Myers, Mrs. Allee Pomerene, Mrs. James A. Reed, Mrs. John D. Works, Mrs. Charles S. Thomas, Mrs. Olie M. James, Mrs. Willard Saulsbury, Mrs. John K. Shields, Mrs. William H. Thompson, Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin, Mrs. Samuel J. Graham, Mrs. Andrew A. Jones, Mrs. Orlinfield, Mrs. William C. Gorgas, Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, Mrs. W. W. Dixon, Mrs. William F. Dennis, Mrs. Fred Denett, Mrs. T. A. Dobyn, Mrs. W. E. Safford, Mrs. Hannis Taylor and Miss Marie Sadler of Helena, Montana, Mrs. Walsh's houseguest.

Senator and Mrs. Lee S. Overman of North Carolina will entertain at a large reception, in compliment to their daughters, the Misses Grace and Katherine Overman, this afternoon, from 5 to 7 o'clock, at their residence, 1719 Rhode Island avenue. Mrs. Evans Clark Gregory, who arrived yesterday, will be the guest of Senator and Mrs. Overman. In compliment to their daughters, the Misses Grace and Katherine Overman, this afternoon, from 5 to 7 o'clock, at their residence, 1719 Rhode Island avenue. Mrs. Evans Clark Gregory, who arrived yesterday, will be the guest of Senator and Mrs. Overman. In compliment to their daughters, the Misses Grace and Katherine Overman, this afternoon, from 5 to 7 o'clock, at their residence, 1719 Rhode Island avenue. Mrs. Evans Clark Gregory, who arrived yesterday, will be the guest of Senator and Mrs. Overman.

A pretty wedding took place at Grace Church Chapel, in New York, yesterday at 4 o'clock, when Lieut. James Richard Barry, U. S. N., son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Barry of this city, and Miss Ada Van Zandt, niece of Mr. and Mrs. James Barnard Harris and of Mrs. B. G. Allen, were married by the Rev. Dr. Slattery in the presence of the members of the families of the bride and groom and a large number of guests. The bridegroom and a sister followed at Delmonico's. Lieut. and Mrs. Barry left New York today for San Francisco, whence they will sail January 6 for Manila, he having been assigned to duty with the Asiatic fleet.

Miss Helen Blodgett was the guest of honor at a delightful luncheon given today by Miss Marie Lee.

The table was decorated with a centerpiece of Richmond roses and ferns. The guests included Miss Lucy Burleson, Miss Ruth Lester, Miss Ellie Lejeune, Miss Jeanette Cowan, Miss Catherine Harlow, Miss Georgia Schofield, Miss Margaret Read, the Misses Chase, Miss Mary Garland, Miss Lillian Hendrick, Miss Dorothy Brooks, Miss Katherine Beach, Miss Pocahontas Butler, Miss Esther Foote, Miss Laura Temple Graves, Miss Katherine Hitchcock, Miss Elizabeth Kingsbury, Miss Katherine Hill, Miss Antoinette Ray, Miss Dorothy Taylor and Miss Ruth Patterson.

Miss Rosalie Waters entertained informally at luncheon today in compliment to Miss Jane Gregory and her house guests, Miss Mary Taylor and Miss Mary Bryan of Texas.

The members of the Congressional Club will be at home tomorrow afternoon for the last time until the Friday after New Year. The program will be a musical one, and tea will be served at 5 o'clock.

An interesting debutante of this afternoon will be Miss Margherita Tillman, daughter of Commander E. H. Tillman, U. S. N., and Mrs. Tillman, who will be presented at a tea at the home of her parents on G street.

Mrs. Joseph Kuhn and Mrs. John N. Speel will do the honors at the tea table and the other members of the receiving party will include Mrs. George E. Williams, Mrs. Dillrell of Texas, the house guest of Mrs. Charles Grayson, Mrs. Elliott L. Woods, Mrs. S. H. Kondrup, Mrs. J. Harvey Tomb, Mrs. Herbert G. Sparrow and Mrs. Harry Anselmi.

Miss Tillman's assistants will be the Misses Chase, Miss Ellie Lejeune, Miss Beatrice Dulin and her guest, Miss Lillian Sutton of Texas; Miss Charlotte

Capers, Miss Marie Sims, Miss Margaret Parker, Miss Jeanette Cowan, Miss Hull and Miss Anita Kite.

A buffet supper and dance for the receiving party will follow the tea.

Miss Ruth Lester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wharton E. Lester, was presented to a large and distinguished gathering of society at a tea given by her parents yesterday afternoon from 4:30 to 7 o'clock at their residence on Massachusetts avenue.

The drawing room suite was elaborately decorated, the walls being sprayed over with southern snail, with here and there wall pockets filled with pink roses. Roses and ferns banked the mantel, and in the dining room the tea table had a large centerpiece of pink roses and maidenhair fern.

A tall screen across one end of the drawing room held the scores of beautiful bouquets sent the lovely young bride.

Mrs. Lester received in an exquisite gown of gray chiffon over gray satin trimmed with silver lace.

The debutante was lovely in a gown of cloth of silver over white satin, with a bouffant overskirt of white tulle. The bodice of tulle had a girdle of silver lace and was trimmed with tiny silver rosebuds. She carried a large, shower bouquet of Killarney roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Victor Kauffmann and Mrs. Joseph Kuhn presided at the daintily appointed tea table and Mrs. Hampton Gary served punch.

The other assistants included Miss Grace Overman, Miss Jeanette Cowan, Miss Teresa Grandia, Pezet, Miss Laurie Smith, Miss Catherine Burdette, Miss Beatrice Dulin, Miss Lillian Hendrick, Miss Margaret Douglas, Miss Marie Sims, Miss Margaret Read, Miss Helen Blodgett and Miss Mary Graham.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing entertained at dinner last evening. Their guests were the ambassador of Spain and Mme. de Irujo, the ambassador of Chile and Mme. Suarez-Villa, the minister of Switzerland and Mme. Ritter, Mme. Ekengren, the minister of Denmark, Senator and Mrs. Gilbert Hitchcock, the Attorney General and Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory.

Representative and Mrs. Henry D. Flood, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Andrew J. Peters, Mr. Wilbur J. Carr, director of the consular service; Miss Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Warren of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee.

Mrs. Carroll A. Devoe was hostess at a luncheon at the Army and Navy Club yesterday in honor of Mrs. Henry W. Lawton. Those invited to meet Mrs. Lawton were: Mrs. Henry Breckinridge, Mrs. Hugh L. Scott, Mrs. Henry P. McCain, Mrs. William C. Gorgas, Mrs. James B. Aleshire, Mrs. Butler, P. Price, Mrs. Emerson H. Liscum, Mrs. Charles C. Walcutt, Mrs. George Cameron and Mrs. Charles W. Feinton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Payne Meredith had a dinner at the Chevy Chase Club last night, when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Myron Parker, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Louis Lehr, Dr. and Mrs. J. Breckinridge Bayne, Mr. and Mrs. Ormsby McCammon, Mr. and Mrs. Henry.
